DREXEL NEWMAN

Spring Break Service Trip

Eight Drexel students accompanied by Fr. Vince will be journeying to Saint Michael Indian School in Arizona during March 20-27. We will be working at the mission that Saint Katharine Drexel founded in 1902 with the help of Franciscan friars. Our service will be for the Navajo students who attend Saint Michael School. In order to meet our financial responsibilities we once again rely on your generosity. The second collection on March 14 will be dedicated solely for defraying the cost of the trip. Normally one collection per month is taken for both Newman Centers so in April the Newman collection will be strictly for Penn Newman. Thank you for your support and generosity.
